Singapore, 3 May 2017 – Heeton Holdings Limited (“Heeton”), KSH Holdings Limited (“KSH”), Lian Beng Group Ltd (“Lian Beng”) and Ryobi Kiso Holdings Ltd. (“Ryobi Kiso”) are pleased to announce that the consortium’s new hotel in London, United Kingdom has commenced operations. The hotel is managed by Heeton and operates under the brand LUMA CONCEPT HOTEL.

The consortium is led by Heeton with an effective interest of 60%. Ryobi Kiso's 75% owned subsidiary - RMTL Investment Pte. Ltd. have taken a 20% stake in the joint venture while KSH and Lian Beng each hold an effective interest of 10%.

The consortium acquired the freehold property in early 2015 for approximately S$31 million. Originally a budget standard hotel with 42 bedrooms, the building was demolished and a new 89 bedroom hotel measuring 28,266 square feet was constructed in its place. The redevelopment was organized and overseen by Heeton UK, a London-based wholly-owned subsidiary of Heeton Holdings Limited, using state-of-the-art modular construction methods. With modular construction, factory-produced pre-engineered building units or 'pods' are delivered to site and assembled; time-saving and greater assurance of quality are usually the key benefits. The LUMA Concept Hotel was effectively constructed off-site, under controlled plant conditions, using the same materials and designing to the same specifications and standards as in conventional on-site construction.

The LUMA CONCEPT HOTEL London Hammersmith is located at 28-36 Glenthorne Road, London, United Kingdom. The hotel is within 2 minutes' walk from Hammersmith Underground Station in London and is well connected to many places of interests. Hyde Park, the largest Royal Park in London, is a mere fifteen minutes away while Harrods offers world-class shopping in nearby Knightsbridge and the Natural History Museum in South Kensington is a London icon. All the rooms are equipped with air conditioning, complimentary high-speed wi-fi, remote control flat screen TVs with Freeview, work desk, laptop size safe deposit boxes, USB ports, complimentary tea and coffee making facilities, bespoke Luma Hotel toiletries created with 100% pure organic Argan oil.

The LUMA CONCEPT HOTEL Hammersmith is managed by Heeton's hospitality division, which also manages 4 other UK hotels with two more in the pipeline. This is the Group's first Heeton-branded hotel; plans to roll out the brand are in development.

Commenting on the hotel opening, Mr Eric Teng (“丁行洲”), Heeton's Chief Executive Officer, commented: “With the opening of LUMA CONCEPT HOTEL, we continue to entrench ourselves further both within the UK market as well as the hospitality sector. With an amazing and dedicated pool of industry professionals, we are confident of becoming a prominent service provider in the UK hospitality market. Going forward, we will continue looking for suitable opportunities to expand our portfolio.”

Mr. Ong Pang Aik (王邦益), Lian Beng's Executive Chairman and Managing Director, commented, “We are delighted that our bold boutique hotel has started operations in Hammersmith, London. Uncomplicated but beautiful, smart and inspired, we are confident that the LUMA CONCEPT HOTEL will illuminate how a modern boutique hotel ought to be. We are optimistic that this hotel project will be successful”

Mr. Choo Chee Onn (“朱峙安”), Executive Chairman and Managing Director of KSH, said, “LUMA CONCEPT HOTEL offers a differentiated high-tech and quality personalised experience for today's travellers at affordable price points. It is uniquely positioned in the bustling Hammersmith and Kensington districts, a stone's throw away from many tourist, F&B, watering holes, culture and theatre hotspots in London.
